St. Louis, MO—

Pete Joyce promoted to Director of Operations for Granger Contracting Company, Inc. and N-STORE Services, LLC.

Pete Joyce has been promoted to Director of Operations for Granger Contracting Company, Inc. and N-STORE Services, LLC located in Chesterfield, MO—a suburb of St. Louis.

Pete originally joined Granger Contracting in August of 1998 as a Project Coordinator and brought with him an engineering degree from the Missouri University of Science and Technology as well as a background in construction. Pete spent time both in the office and the field and that knowledge allowed him to move through several different positions in the company including Field Operations Manager, Safety Director and Senior Project Manager. In September of 2007 Pete was promoted to Operations Manager and was responsible for the entire Granger Project Management Team. As Pete begins his new role as Director of Operations, he will be responsible for both Granger and N-STORE's Project and Program Management Teams. Pete will be leading operations to ensure that procedures are standardized, bringing a greater level of customer service to our clients, and ensuring that all team members are ready to serve our clients for every type of project.

Granger Contracting Company, Inc. and N-STORE Services, LLC are proud and excited to welcome Pete into this new role and look forward to continued success together.
