

The first four months of 2010 brings four new clients for Granger and N-STORE.

Chesterfield, MO – April 28, 2010 –Granger Contracting Company, Inc. and N-STORE Services, LLC, wholly owned subsidiaries of GNH Services, Inc., have started 2010 with the addition of four new national clients. The clients, who represent one specialty retailer, 2 big box and department store retailers, and one rental service provider, have initiated contracts with one, or in some cases, both of the companies in 2010.

Executive Vice President and Co-Owner, Matt Levenson commented, “In the very early stages of these new client relationships, we are already seeing the results of our commitment to partnership. The time that we dedicate upfront to truly understanding our clients – from their corporate culture, to their organizational structure, to their objectives – enables us to hit the ground running, which delivers near instant value and leads to partnerships that last decades.”

Granger Contracting and N-STORE Services have already completed a number of projects for the four new clients and are contracted for more later in the year. These projects include store closings, remodels, relocations, store surveys and sign and fixture installation.
