

N-STORE awarded four projects by new retail client

Chesterfield, MO – April 28, 2010 – N-STORE Services, LLC, a national retail specialty contractor, has been awarded four projects by one of their newest clients, a national footwear retailer.

The projects, two located in Miami, FL, one located in Williamsburg, VA and one located in Ardmore, Oklahoma, will update or enhance these existing stores. The Williamsburg project and Ardmore projects will begin in May. Both Miami projects are slated for September.

Mark Venturella, the Account Executive responsible for managing this new account commented, "The award of these four projects demonstrates N-STORE's ability to provide highly scalable and customizable services anywhere in the United States, regardless of the project size or scope. Each project has its own unique scope of work; ranging from very, very small to somewhat complex. Regardless of the size or complexity, we will devote the same amount of diligence and deliver the same quality results on them all."
