

N-STORE Hits the Road for National Footwear Retailer – 16 Projects and One Rollout Awarded

Chesterfield, MO – September 27, 2010– N-STORE Services, LLC, a national retail specialty contractor, has recently been awarded 16 projects and one 62-store rollout by a national footwear retail client. The projects span over 34 states and total over $1 million in revenue.

Construction began last week on the first of the awarded projects which include a mix of 12 remodel projects, 4 new store build outs and a 62-store, 32-state rollout. The majority of the remodels will be completed in one week, the new projects in four weeks and the 62 store rollout will be coordinated and completed in 60 days.

Mark Venturella, N-STORE national account executive commented, "Early this year, we began working with this client – one store at a time – and have proven ourselves to be a solid partner that can support them during their busiest time of the year." He continued, "now, just 7 months after our first project, we are playing a significant role in helping them achieve their workload using our wide ranging capabilities to offer service on many levels."
